The Science of Health!

Every Man his own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

—AND—

Holloway's Ointment.

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The stomach is the great center which influences the health or disease of the system—abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, etc. The bowels sympathize by costiveness, diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum

Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent. To these the Ointment is especially antagonistic; its modus operandi is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years' standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions of the Skin,

Arising from a bad state of the blood, or chronic diseases, are eradicated and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

Female Complaints,

Whether in the young or old, married or single at the dawn of Womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation. They are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of Females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stuborn diseases is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases: Bunions, burns, chapped hands, chilblains, fistula, gout, lumbago, mercurial eruptions, piles, rheumatism, ringworm, salt-rheum, scalds, skin diseases, swelled glands, sore legs, sore breasts, sore heads, sore throats, sores of all kinds, sprains, stiff joints, tetter, ulcers, venereal sores and wounds of all kinds.

CAUTION.—See that the words "Holloway, New York and London," appear as a water mark on every leaf of the book of directions which enfolds each box or pot. No others are genuine. A handsome reward given for information leading to the detection of counterfeiters of the medicines and venders of the deceptive articles, knowing them to be such. Sold at the manufactory, No. 80 Maiden Lane, and by druggists and medicine dealers throughout the world. A great saving by taking the large sizes. Full instructions with every box or pot.

The Loved not Lost.

How strange it seems, with so much gone
Of life and love, to still live on!
Ah, brother, only I and thou
Are left of all that circle now—
The dear home faces whereupon
That fitful firelight paled and shone.
Henceforward, listen as we will,
The voices of that hearth are still;
Look where we may the wild world o'er,
Those lighted faces shine no more.
We tread the path their feet have worn,
We sit beneath their orchard trees,
We hear them like the hum of bees
And rustle of the bladed corn;
We turn the pages that they read,
Their written words we linger o'er;
But in the sun they cast no shade,
No voice is heard, no sign is made,
No step is on the conscious floor!
Yet love will dream, and faith will trust,
Since He who knows our need is just,
That somehow, somewhere, meet we must.
Alas! for him who never sees
The stars shine through his cypress trees!
Who, hopeless, lays his dead away,
Nor looks to see the breaking day
Across the mournful marbles play!
Who hath not learned in hours of faith,
The truth to flesh and sense unknown,
That Life is ever Lord of Death,
And love can never lose its own!

—[John G. Whittier.

A BOY AGAIN.—A couple of gentlemen in Reno were, not long since, whiling an evening away by singing songs and relating anecdotes, when one asked for the song of "Would I were a boy again," at which "Cid Pi Ute" (John K. Lovejoy) who was present, broke out as follows: "A boy again! Who would be a boy again if he could? To have the measles, mumps and itch; to get licked by bigger boys and scolded by older brothers; to stub your toes; to have the belly-ache from swallowing cherry-stones; to have chapped hands and frozen toes; to slip on the ice; to do chores; to get your ears boxed; to get spanked with a slipper; to get whaled by a thick-headed school-master; to be made to stand up as the dunce for the amusement of the school; to have visitors come to the school and tell you how miserably weak and stupid you were when you were born, and to ask you what would have become of you at that interesting time in your life if your parents had not been so patient with and kind to you (of course it was all one's fault that he was born and his parents were in no way concerned or interested in the matter); to eat at the second table when company comes; to set out cabbage-plants because you are little and consequently it won't make your back ache much; to be made to go to school when you don't want to; to get spelled down in school; to lose your marbles; to have your sled broken; to get hit in the eye with frozen apples and soggy snowballs; to cut your finger; to lose your knife; to have a hole in the rear of your only pair of pants when your pretty cousin from the city comes to see you; to be called a coward if you don't fight at school; to be whaled at home if you do fight at school; to be stuck after a little girl and dare not tell her; to have a boy too big for you to lick tell you your sweetheart squints; to have your sweetheart cut you dead and affiliate with that boy John Smith whom you hate particularly because he set your nose up the week before; to be made to go to bed when you know you ain't a bit sleepy; to have no fire-crackers on the Fourth of July; no skates on Christmas, to want a piece of bread and butter with honey and get your ears pulled; to be kept from the circus when it comes to town and when all the other boys go; to get pounded for stealing roasting-ears; to get run by bull dogs for trying to nip water melons; to have the canker-rash, catechism and stone bruises; to be called up to kiss all the old women that visit your mother; to be scolded because you like Maggie Love better than your own dear sister; to be told what a scorching time little boys will have who tell lies and are not like George Washington; to catch your big brother kissing the pretty school ma'am on the sly and to wish you was big so you could kiss her too; and—why—d—n being a boy again."—Reno Crescent.

• A QUEER incident occurred "under the linden," in Frankfort, some weeks ago. A bridegroom was missing when the marriage procession formed, and, after a long search, was discovered in the top of a linden tree. The guests, the bride, and her father, all assembled beneath it, beseeching him to come down, but he would not and did not, until the father-in-law that was to be had drawn up and signed a settlement transferring certain lands to the delinquent groom. The settlement had long been agreed upon, but had been deferred again and again, until, finally, the cunning groom took the above method of obtaining it. After that was done, all went off smoothly. The groom descended from his perch, kissed the tears from the cheek of the sobbing bride, and gallantly led her to the altar.

WHEN the Conference assembled in Hillsborough some years since, on the last day of the session, a lad, whose father had entertained some half-dozen preachers, entered the room where the ministers were seated, in a terrible state of excitement. "What's the matter, Isaac?" asked one; "you seem excited." "Excited! I ain't excited; I'm mad all over." "What are you mad about, Isaac? Don't you know it is wrong to suffer yourself to become angered?" "Wrong or not wrong, it's enough to make anybody mad but a preacher. Here's every chicken on the place eat up except the old rooster, and just now he happened to get a glimpse of you fellows, and sung out: 'And must this feeble bod-y die-e,' and dropped stone dead."

A PHYSICIAN going down Broadway with a friend of his, said to him, "Let us avoid that pretty little woman you see there on the left. She knows me, and casts on me looks of indignation. I attended her husband." "Ah! I see; you had the misfortune to dispatch him." "On the contrary," replied the doctor, "I saved him."

"DARLING FUZZYLINDA, let us walk in the meadow, where the clover is in blossom and the amorous zephyrs play." "Oh, dern the amorous heifers! I see enough of them over on dad's farm."

DICKENS, in speaking of pawnbrokers' duplicates, says they are the turnpike-tickets on the road of poverty.

RUTH.

She was standing at the garden gate, all alone, in the deepening twilight. Dear, gentle Ruth, with eyes like morning violets, and hair of that soft tint, brown in the shade, and golden in the sun; you would have loved her had you seen her; there was in her manner that clinging, confiding air, which endeared her to all hearts, and made her sole empress of one. When she raised those soft, blue eyes, from whose depths the pure soul looked forth, a pang would rend your heart to think that so fair a creature should some day know the bitter word sorrow. She was standing at the garden gate watching him to whom she had given her first love, as he strolled down the lane and out into the meadow. They had parted, perhaps forever; he to go into the busy world and carve his own fortune; she, to remain in her native village, until such time as he would return and claim the reward so ardently wished for. Dear, gentle Ruth, whose whole life was a noble sacrifice; an invalid mother claimed all her care, else she would have left home, friends, everything, and gone with Paul Seaton on his journey through life.

Here was a beautiful home in a pleasant little village, skirted by a grove of sturdy forest trees. You could detect the presence of a young girl, in the creeping vines that wound along the balcony; in the roses that bloomed along the garden walks, and in the air of cheerfulness that reigned throughout the whole house. There were dainty white curtains at the parlor windows, drawn back with pink ribbons, vases of flowers on the high mantle, and an open piano with keys still vibrating at the remembrance of the fair fingers that had lately touched them. Ruth would flutter from room to room, arranging this, and touching that, as if it were the ambition of her life to hover over disordered furniture.

But this evening there was a sadness in every gesture. Her head dropped upon her bosom, her eyes were suffused with tears, and her hands trembled as she performed the accustomed nightly offices for the mother whom she so much loved.

Time passed on, and a change came over Ruth, and her quiet home; her mother departed to the land of shadows, leaving the young girl to the care of an uncle then residing in a distant city. With a heavy heart, Ruth took her last look of her childhood's home, and departed to meet the strangers with whom her future lot was cast. Her uncle was a cold, reticent man, and the kiss he laid upon the forehead of his niece sent a chill to her heart, so formal and stately was the salute. She dreaded to meet his wife and daughters; and as their journey drew to a close, and the carriage drove up to a handsome brown house, Ruth leaned out to catch a glimpse of her future home. A very fashionable "brown stone front" it was, with a broad flight of marble steps leading up to the massive door, where stood a footman waiting to receive them.

Ruth was ushered into the parlor, and seated upon a sofa; everything betokened wealth and fashion, and a sense of loneliness crept upon the orphan's heart as she recalled her cottage home in the beautiful country. She was saved a gush of tears by the timely entrance of three ladies—her aunt and two cousins. They pressed the tips of her fingers, touched their lips to her forehead, and sat down, eyeing her with curiosity, strongly mingled with wonder. They had expected to see an overgrown school girl, fresh from a romp in the woods, and here was a delicate, lady-like young woman, whose face was one of more than ordinary beauty. They asked Ruth many questions concerning her mother's death, which she endeavored to answer without showing her emotion, but the tears would come in spite of herself, for which she received from her fashionable cousins a broad stare, and an inexpressible look of mingled contempt and pity. At last she was conducted to her own room, and left to weep in silence. She threw herself upon the bed, and sobbed as if her heart would break.

"Not a friend in the world have I," she moaned; and the thought made the pain in her bosom deeper. Then the image of Paul Seaton rose before her. Three years had passed since they parted, and she had received only a few letters from him. Not a doubt of his faithfulness entered her mind; but she thought of him as sick, dying and dead. No one near to bathe his throbbing temples or press his fevered head. Day and night she thought of this, until she believed the angel had come and released the imprisoned soul. Then there was the lonely grave in a strange land, where no one ever came to shed the heartfelt tear or lay flowers at his tired feet.

Poor Ruth! she needed comfort and there was no one to give it. This was her daily life; living in the same house with human creatures, who possessed hearts as well as she did, yet never receiving a look, a word, or a token of sympathy.

There was no congeniality between them, for her aunt and cousins lived only for the triumphs of fashion; so in the thronged world, she was lonely and homesick. Did she but know of the happiness that was waiting for her down the road; of the true and loyal heart which, through poverty, sickness and sorrow, turned to her as the lone star of its existence; did she but know how some one would give the whole world for a look into her fresh young face and a glance of her mild blue eye, her heart would have been light indeed, and her step as free as in the old, happy days. But we are not to know these things; and often the light in those dear eyes dies out, the clasp of that gentle hand grows loose, and the grave closes over the young form, and the love that somebody has given it.

But with Ruth it was not thus. Her love had come to her years before. God had taken it away, but only for awhile, it was to be restored to her brighter than before. The days and the weeks slipped by, and Ruth walked her daily path with a more contented heart. She knew there was one kind friend whose care would never fail her; and in her hours of trial and loneliness her thoughts would turn to Him, the great Father of all.

The rain was falling heavily down, and man and beast sought shelter from its fury. All gaiety was checked, and the fashionable young ladies ponted in curl-papers and flowing wrappers. "What a disagreeable day," thought they, as the time was passed in lounging on sofas with the latest sensational novel. "What a treat I shall have," murmured Ruth to herself, as she was seated in her own room, busy with some needle work. The day wore on, and the rain fell slowly, still, when the house was thrown into the utmost confusion by the ringing of the door-bell and the announcement of "a gentleman for Miss Ruth." Such a thing had never happened before. The quiet, unobtrusive Ruth having a gentleman to call and see her! How they wondered at the prolonged absence of the young girl, and guessed over and over who it was, without being convinced which was the right guess.

But Ruth, gentle Ruth, there she stands, heart to heart with Paul Seaton, the absent friend. Never more will she be home-sick or weary, never again will she be wounded by cold words, or still colder looks. Oh, beautiful love, whose trust and faith commence in the blossom of life, and endure forever and ever! At the sound of his voice, at the pressure of his hand, the grim shadow vanished from her life, and she stood revealed, the beautiful, trusting Ruth of happier days.

Far away in the distance, down the toilsome road of life, they still remain heart to heart. Her golden-brown hair has had the Autumn wind to blow upon it, changing its bright tint to a more sober hue; her soft blue eyes have shed some tears of sorrow, but to him they are as the stars that light the benighted traveler on his homeward journey. The sun looks forth as pure as it ever did, and, hand in hand, the husband and wife take up their burden and walk "the way of God."

PUT THAT RASCAL OUT.—While the congregation were collected at church, on a certain occasion, an old, dark, hard-featured, skin and bone individual was wending his way up the aisle and taking his seat near the pulpit. The officiating minister was one of that class who detested written sermons, and as for prayers he thought they ought to be natural outpouring of the heart. After singing was concluded, they were, as usual, called to prayer. The genius we have introduced did not kneel, but leaned his head devotionally upon the pew. The minister began by saying:

"Father of all in every age by saint and savage adored"—

"Pope!" said a low but clear voice near old hard-features.

The minister, after casting an indignant look in the direction of the voice, continued:

"Whose throne sittith on the adamantine hills of Paradise"—

"Milton!" again interrupted the voice.

The minister's lip quivered for a moment, but recovering himself, he begun:

"We thank thee, most gracious Father, that we are permitted once more to assemble in thy name, while others, equally meritorious, but less favored, have been carried beyond that bourne from which no traveler returns"—

"Shakespeare!" again interrupted the voice.

This was too much. "Put that impudent rascal out," shouted the minister.

"Original!" ejaculated the voice, in the same calm, but provoking manner.

A SERENADE.—I serenaded Sophia once when she was but a tender lass, and the greeting which I received for my traveling musical convention has never been fully appreciated by me. It was the witching hour of 1 A. M., when the churchyards yawn. Everything was hushed and stillness reigned profound. I commenced to sing, "I bring a little flower to thee." Sophia was hanging out of the window, and it was through her solicitation that I endeavored to warble the cussed piece, "I bring a little flower to thee." Sophia's tryannical pap stuck his head out of the window, and in a voice of thunder roared, "Well, just set it on the doorstep, and don't make such a fuss about a cussed little flower."

MUST PAY.—It appears that the Feejeeans have been eating another American missionary. The Alta says our Government has a mortgage on the kingdom, to secure the payment of a sum due on account of other Americans killed and eaten, and if King Thakumbua does not at once pay for these last missionaries at the highest market price, the mortgage should be foreclosed, and the Feejee Islands annexed to the United States.

A CHILD on being shown the picture of "Daniel in the Lion's Den" was affected to tears. "Don't grieve, Pet," said the mother, "he was not devoured." "I'm not crying for that," was the reply; "but do you see that little lion in the corner, mamma? Well, I'm afraid he won't get any, for Daniel is so small he won't go around!"

Two men running in opposite directions came in rough contact while turning a corner. "O, dear! how you made my head ring," said Smith. "That's a sign it's hollow," said Brown. "But didn't yours ring?" "No." "That's a sign it's cracked," replied his friend, and then they parted.

A CHINAMAN'S opinion of a trial by jury: "One of the men was silent; the other spoke all the time; and the twelve sages condemned the man who had not said anything."

A WAG, seeing a door nearly off its hinges, in which condition it had been some time, observed that when it had fallen and killed some one it would probably be hung.

SIDNEY SMITH compares the whistle of a locomotive to the squeal of an attorney when Satan first gets hold of him.

The Future.

Now that the smoke of battle has cleared away and our unequivocal victory is filling us with happiness, we have no shouts, nor taunts, nor jeers for those of the rank and file of the Radical party who opposed us in good faith; but for the unprincipled wretches who openly avowed that the vote of Mare Island must imperatively be controlled, and who sent a special agent to Washington City to induce the administration of President Grant to aid in coercing the vote of Mare Island, we have something worse than mere jeers and taunts. It is true that our standard-bearer, Wm. Minis, Senator elect, had to battle against two Railroad Companies, one Steam Navigation Company and all the combined influences of Chinadom, and it is also delightfully true that he defeated the infernal combination; but that does not lessen the crime of those newspapers that, like the Sacramento Union demanded that the Government discharge Democratic mechanics at Mare Island to keep Minis from being elected. It does not save the reputation of the high-toned officials who united in that scheme to compel poor men to vote the Radical ticket. It does not save them from the public contempt and execration, nor from the account they will be held to in the time to come, when this and other equally damning revealings will be massed against them in one huge overwhelming record. The day is not far distant when, unless the public sentiment becomes utterly insensible to all honor, the voice of a whole people will, in one grand volume of reprobation, denounce the infamies of the present corrupt rulers, who are making their last desperate efforts to retain power and save spoils. The Democratic majority in our State Legislature will be something to begin with; but more powerful still will be the moral force of that sterling and devoted Democratic minority in the national Congress, that will, in spite of carpet-baggers and the lobby agents of capitalists, have the distinguished honor of inaugurating the long, strong and eternal warfare now commenced in deadly earnest, between the Democracy and the monopolists and other sinister combinations now menacing our Republic.

WHERE WAS HE?—Boruck, in the Spirit of the Times, crows over the result of the election and says, "We told them so." Where was he during the canvass? He never said a word nor did a thing in his paper to bring about the result. Was he absent? or was he afraid of the wrath of Bill Carr and Geo. Gorham if he opened his mouth? We would not suppose from what we know of their treatment of him last winter, that he would feel under obligations to consult their wishes in anything.

IT is certain that without the vote of Tennessee the Fifteenth Amendment cannot be adopted, and Emerson Etheridge says that all the members of the present Legislature of Tennessee, who favor the Fifteenth Amendment, could be conveniently carried in a single omnibus, and there would still be room for more.

UNJUST.—At least $1,000,000,000 of United States six per cents are now held in Europe, and out of the interest paid on these bonds not a cent of income tax is returned to the Government. Citizens of this country are obliged to pay the five per cent. tax on the interest received by them, while the foreign holders are exempt.

PICNICS in a town in Pennsylvania are wound up by the girls standing in a long row, while the young men go along the line and kiss them all "good night." No doubt picnics are popular in that town amongst the young men.

CONTRAST.—Joe Walkup, of the Placer Herald, is resposible for the following:

European flunkyism differs from the American article in this particular: In Europe they idolize the man, but here they idolize the man's shirts, (the man Schurz.)

THE Appeal says that a man thoroughly educated votes the straight Republican ticket. There seems to have been very few "thoroughly educated" men in the State at the late election.

FIFTEEN thousand dollars has been raised by subscription for the widow of the late Secretary of War, Rawlins, and a much larger amount it is said will be subscribed.

THE Solano Press, of Sept. 1st, says: "It looks as if the Republicans would have a majority in the next Legislature." How does it look now?

IGNORED.—The "indictment" of the Solano Press against Wm. Minis has been ignored by the intelligent people of Solano and Yolo counties.

JUDGE MCKUNE has returned from his visit to the Eastern States.

It is Well.

Time enough has elapsed, since the great peaceful contest, to sum up its results and its immediate and probable remote effect. The opposition to Radical misrule and dangerous fanaticism have gained an overwhelming victory. The Democratic party, having placed itself right upon living issues, advanced to the front line of safe progression and found themselves reinforced by a host of true patriots who loved their country more than party. They have gained control of the popular branch of the State Government, having before possession of the Executive. That they will use their power with wisdom, justice and moderation, we do not doubt. That the vote of California was necessary to secure the adoption of the Fifteenth Constitutional Amendment, we believe. If so, then the future results of the late election are far more important than any advantage to be gained from mere State supremacy. At all events, our people have done their duty in that regard, and should enough States be found to ratify it the fault will not be theirs. They have recorded their solemn protest against it. "The Republican party had its day and died." The Radical party is dead as far as this State is concerned, and its days as a national party, are numbered. Unlike its predecessor, it had nothing to recommend it to the regard of patriotic people, its head-centre being a band of ambitious office-holders, thrown to the surface by the great political convulsions which have marked the past ten years of the history of the Republic. Devoid of patriotism, wisdom, or even prudence, they used the power in their hands only for the purpose of perpetuating it. Its foreign policy has been braggadocia and backing down. The people groan under heavy taxation, and no relief is afforded nor attempted. Monopolies have been built up at the peoples' expense, subdisized by the Government, that they might be used to crush the people, and aid in perpetuating the power of the Radical leaders in Congress and the different States. There is nothing in the history of the Radical party to recommend it to the popular confidence, and it will go to its certain fate without exciting one feeling of regret in the hearts of the people. California has set an example which will be followed by other States. Her voice will be heard, and her counsels heeded, and in this, the result of the late election, will be of great consequence to the whole country. A good work has been accomplished; the victors do and have a right to rejoice, and the vanquished, save those who were personally interested, have no reason to regret. They, too, in the future—when the scales shall have fallen from their eyes, and they shall see the disgrace and danger themselves, in common with their opponents, have escaped—when they know that the chastening they have received has been for their good, will say as we say now, IT IS WELL.

WHAT WOULD OCCUR IF THE EARTH SHOULD BE STOPPED IN ITS ORBIT.—If the earth should be stopped in its orbit, says the Mining and Scientific Press, it would begin to fall straight toward the sun. As it approaches more nearly to that great source of heat it would reach a point where the temperature is as high as two hundred and twelve degrees and then all the waters of the ocean would be evaporated. As it drew still nearer, the rocks would be melted and afterwards they also would evaporate. Before it reached the sun this solid earth would be converted into one vast volume of red hot gas, which, when it fell into the fiery atmosphere of the sun, would merely produce blasts of wind at the point where it struck outward in all directions.

RESIGNATION.—The Appeal says: "We do not feel like exercising ourself over figures for the purpose of ascertaining the Democratic majority in the next Legislature, and are content to take Democratic estimates. The Reporter puts up the Legislature as follows: Senate—Democrats, 28; Republicans, 12. Assembly — Democrats, 54: Republicans, 16. The Reporter also estimates the popular majority at 15,000. It were all the same if 50,000."

Beautiful resignation to the decree of inevitable destiny. Smith, you are a good Christian to kiss the rod that chasteneth you. The trouncing will do you and all other Fifteenth Amendment fellows good. Do you want some more of it in October?

DEATH OF SECRETARY RAWLINS.—John A. Rawlins, Secretary of War, died at Washington, Monday last, at four o'clock, of consumption. It is but justice to the dead to say, that amongst the imbeciles composing the Cabinet of the President, he was an exception. He was Grant's Chief of Staff during the war, and much of his success must be attributed to Rawlin's ability. He was a man of modest, gentlemanly deportment, and had many warm friends. His death is a loss to the nation, as it is not likely that his place will be filled by a man possessing either his ability or integrity.

DEATH OF A SENATOR.—William Pitt Fessenden, Senator from Maine, died at his home on Wednesday last. He was one of the last of the great Senators. His integrity was never questioned and his great ability was universally recognized. He was fearless and uncompromising in sustaining the right and denouncing wrong. His "lectures" to the Senate will never be forgotten by Senators who deserved them or by spectators who heard them. The nation has lost another and one of the last of its great men.

RAILROAD.—The Solano Democrat says: "It is said a proposition has been made to the Vaca Valley Railroad Company to take up their track and lay it on the proposed road from this place to Cache Creek or Berryessa Valley."

Incorporation of Woodland.

EDITORS YOLO DEMOCRAT:—Pursuant to your invitation, I avail myself of your columns to say a few words, as much in a spirit of inquiry as of assertion, in regard to the proposition to incorporate the town of Woodland. I am opposed to any such measure, because I think that all the benefits of incorporation can be secured by other means, while all the evils of such an act may be avoided.

An incorporated town of the size of Woodland would cost the tax-payers of the town too much. To carry on such municipality would require a Board of Trustees, and at least four policemen to start with. Then a municipal code would be enacted for the regulation of the newly-fledged town and provision would be made for the punishment of the many small misdemeanors now unpunished because no provision for that purpose now exists under our general laws. At present the County Treasury of Yolo has to pay out on an average about one hundred dollars per month on account of the small misdemeanors committed in and around Woodland; but if among these misdemeanors were included the cases of vagrants, drunken men, and a few others not touched by our State laws, the bill of costs to be footed by the incorporated town of Woodland would amount to at least three hundred dollars per month, in addition to the pay of the Trustees and policemen. At present, it is true that the people of Woodland only pay such State and County taxes as are paid by the farmers and "country folks"; but if you add to this the additional expenses above suggested, it will be found that the matter of extra taxation will be deemed a subject for regret and even disgust on the part of a community now already taxed to an almost unbearable extent. Add to this the fact that the best Boards of Trustees are liable to be led, by artful men and apparent necessities, into one little appropriation and another for the improvement of the town, until the grand aggregate of a very large expenditure may steal upon us, to make us feel painfully that we are indeed an "incorporated" community.

Take the examples offered us by the numerous small and ambitious towns of California, that eagerly rushed into incorporation and came out of it disgusted and with a "sold" feeling. Without citing a long list of such towns, let me name Placerville as an instance of an incorporated town that would gladly dis-incorporate and become once more an irresponsible village, freed from taxation. In early times, when Placerville was, like Woodland, a place of considerable business pretensions, the town incorporated with apparently a good municipal code of laws, a Board of Trustees and two very efficient policemen. I had almost forgotten that these policemen, at stated hours, could be awakened by a city Marshal, to whom they could report. Also, I might mention, that it was soon found necessary to make a few additional city officers, such as Treasurer, Assessor and Clerk. I am not sure as to whether or not they had occasion to create the office of city Surveyor. In the year 1868, the city of Placerville had an outstanding floating debt of $7,534, in addition to a debt of many thousands on account of the railroad that ruined the town by making its terminus at Shingle Spring. I may as well add that a better, more enterprising and law-abiding population than the citizens of Placerville cannot be found in the State, as evidence of which I may point to the good order generally prevalent there, and to the fact that that community last year responded to a municipal tax of $4,028 83 by promptly paying all of it save only sixty cents. Such a response from the tax-payers of a town, which for years has been victimized by railroad speculators and other treasury robbers, has no parallel in the histories which might be related of the other victimized towns of California. Let the tax-payers of Woodland look well to it before they leap blindly into this cauldron of incorporation. In my next I will point out a substitute for incorporation. OLD FOGY.

THE DISTRICT JUDGESHIP.—Judge McKune went off shortly after being defeated by the Radicals for the District Judgeship of this and Sacramento counties, and during his absence "the people" held a Convention under the Crawford system, and by an overwhelming majority nominated him. This leaves Robert Robinson, the Radical nominee, and Lewis Ramage, our Democratic nominee, entirely out in the cold, unless that "popular demonstration of the up-rising masses" should happen to be a piece of what Californians call "capping." There is said to be a vague suspicion that somebody has been badly sold in this Crawford affair. The 20th of October will reveal the mystery.

SNUBBED.—J. B. Southard, late Judge of the Seventh District Court, and occasionally addicted to pharisaical attempts at preaching the Gospel, nominated himself for the District Judgeship and forced his party, the Rdicals, to take him from his independent ticket and adopt him as the regular nominee. Already, however, his presumption is rewarded by every imaginable sign that his defeat is assured and that his retirement to private life is a foregone conclusion.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY.—A terrible calamity occurred at a coal mine at Scranton, Pennsylvania, on Monday last. A fire broke out in a flue at the bottom of the main shaft, consuming all the curbing and the buildings erected over the mouth of the shaft. Over two hundred men are supposed to have perished from suffocation; only two were taken out alive. The widows and orphans of the unfortunate men number over six hundred.

The Situation.

Had the Radicals achieved such a triumph as did the Democracy throughout this State the other day, their natural tendency to despotism would have been shown in insolent jubilations from one end of the country to the other. Bonfires would have burned and cannon fired, while impassioned orators would have hurled from numerous forums the epithets so characteristic of that party of fanatics and puritans. It would have again become fashionable to denounce Democrats as rebels, disloyal traitors and vile copperheads, and there would have been many of the uncommonly loyal and righteous who would have been expressing their surprise that the Bastilles of Alcatraz and Fort Churchill were not used as places of imprisonment for "loud-mouthed traitors," as they would designate all who were not afraid to talk Democracy. On our side, the tone of the Democratic press throughout the State shows that while there is a general joy and a feeling of supreme satisfaction, there is no inclination to domineer over or wound our beaten antagonists; for we have seen too plainly that there are many old-fashioned Republicans who, still, from the force of habit and other inexplicable causes, cling to and vote with the Radicals. Again, we are taught moderation when we find that thousands of the old-time Republicans perceived the real issue, the Fifteenth Amendment, and manfully abandoned the party of Radical equality, to vote for the Democratic idea that Chinamen, negroes and other inferior races shall not vote, sit on juries, nor hold office. These men perceived, in good time to assist in the recent Democratic triumph, that the only real issue before the people was this question as to the equality of the races. In the years to come they will be valuable and reliable allies to the Democratic party, and will assist materially in the conservative and progressive reconstruction now going on; for they are as well aware, as are the most orthodox of Democrats, that in the present changed and changing aspects of our government and people, parties must inevitably conform to and prepare to meet the exigencies of the times. The Democratic party has always been the progressive party in the United States, ever since the days of Jefferson, and the events of the next few years will show that its able statesmen and honest masses are still capable of self-government. We welcome to our ranks the men who, throwing aside passion and prejudice, came to us and joined hands with us, to drive from place and power the party of fanaticism and disunion—those Radicals generated from the impracticables of Massachusetts and South Carolina.

Huston; Putah, John Morgan, L. C. Drummond; Cottonwood, W. S. Ware, H. B. Johnson; Merritt, —— Philes; Buckeye, Henry Cooper, J. McComber; Washington, W. N. Green, S. Howk. Road Masters—Woodland, John W. Tilly; Fairview, J. L. Munday; Fremont, A. Ash; West Cottonwood, E. L. Clark; East Grafton, J. Dinwiddie; South Putah, Wm. King; East Cottonwaod, J. S. Tutt; Merritt, B. F. Hester; North Grafton, F. M. Rahm; Cacheville, Asa Pettit; West Grafton, Milt. Dale; North Putah, E. C. Kiefer; Buckeye, L. R. Taylor; Washington, S. Howk.

WOODLAND DISTRICT SCHOOL.—This school opened on Monday last, under very favorable circumstances, and with a goodly array of pupils. It commences under the charge of Mr. Stone as Principal, with Miss Wright as Intermediate and Miss Flournoy in charge of the Primary Department. These teachers were selected upon very high recommendations and will give to the Woodland District School a first-class reputation. The attendance of pupils we have not exactly ascertained this week; but, in common with our neighbors, we shall be happy to look in from time to time and take further notes from occular demonstration.

GARDEN "SASS."—At Chas. Goldman's, opposite the Planter's House, may be seen something very much needed in these hot, feverish days—a very complete vegetable and fruit store, well stocked with the best results of neighboring gardens, vineyards and orchards. Fresh vegetables arrive daily from San Francisco, per railroad. Goldman pays the highest price for fresh butter and eggs.

YOLO STOCK.—Among the race-horse entries at the State Fair we find "Pelham," a two-year old colt, combining the blood of Norfolk, Ashland and Lola Montez, owned by our townsman Jas. A. Douglas, Esq. He will be a second Norfolk, and may turn out to be the "coming horse" that is to beat all previous quick time.

INSANE.—On Wednesday last Sheriff Minis arrested Robert Thompson, of Cacheville, for insanity. He had been drinking excessively and probably his malady is only temporary. On the same day a man, whose name is unknown, was arrested on the same charge near Merritt's Station, in a state of almost entire nudity.

FRUIT.—D. B. Goode has the thanks of this office for a fine assortment of fruit—apples, pears, figs, etc., astonishingly large and delicious beyond expression. They must be tasted to be appreciated. We have tasted and we appreciate both the quality of the fruit and the friendly attention of Mr. Goode.

TOO LATE.—One hot evening, after all hands had been roasted out, Holtzman left at our office a big pitcher of Ice Cream. We found the cream and the pitcher but no ice. We are obliged to Holtzman all the same, but would suggest that we are at home to all such calls in the future, from one o'clock to five, P. M.

NEW SCHOOL.—The old Union Church, near Woodland, will be occupied by a School to be opened there next Monday. We have been unable to ascertain the name of the teacher, but will refer to this School again after it has organized more fully.

TOM THUMB.—Gen. Tom Thumb, Com. Nutt, Mrs. Thumb and Minnie Warren, the smallest full-grown people in the world, will be here on Tuesday. They will hold a grand levee at the Court House in the afternoon and a reception in the evening.

COMMITTED.—Ned. Ryan, from Davisville, has been committed to await action by the Grand Jury, for assault with a deadly weapon, at Davisville, one day last week. He made careless use of a hatchet in an affray with another party.

GREAT BARGAINS at S. & M. Hymans'. The entire stock of the above firm will be sold at cost, to close co-partnership. See advertisement in to-day's DEMOCRAT.

GAME LAW.—The 15th of September is close at hand, and after Tuesday our "shootists" can enjoy the largest liberty. Quail had better roost high after that date.

GRAIN is coming in slowly; mostly quantities sold some time since to deliver. Prices are depressed and very little is offered in market.

FARMERS, if you want the best Grain Cleaner ever invented, send for descriptive circulars to Hunter & Wristen, 218 Davis street, San Francisco.

DISTRICT COURT.—Next Monday, 13th inst., the District Court will meet for the trial of some special cases set for that day.

THE INCREASE.—The vote of this county for 1867 was 1,495. At the recent election it was 2,132—an increase of 637.

DULL WEEK.—Everybody has been to the State Fair and the town during the past week has been extremely hot.

ENDLESS MATCH.—Read & Magee have for sale this very handy and useful invention.

Business men, worn by care and sedentary habits, often suffer from constipation of the bowels, until the evil consequences of such a condition are realized in extreme debility, nervousness and prostration of the vital energies of the system; and it may be safely asserted that a majority of the female sex are little better than invalids, from the same cause; but by using Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, this natural aperient and tonic brings back the vigor and bouyancy of health.

An exchange says: "The surprising curative efficacy of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, in a great variety of chronic diseases, especially those which prove obstinate, and incurable by ordinary treatment, cannot be explained. Nature, aided by art, has here provided a rare combination of medicinal properties, wisely adapted to the cure of diseases common to all mankind."

The effect of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, even when taken for its cathartic properties, are very different from those of any other medicine prepared specially for that purpose.

There is no nausea or disturbance of the stomach, and instead of causing any sense of languor, or debility, it seems rather to invigorate the whole system, and excite the keenest appetite.

WALTHAM WATCHES!

Let every one who wants a Watch, read this carefully. Especially if in some remote out-of-the-way place!

Now that the railroad is open, we propose to give the residents of California the opportunity of getting single Waltham Watches at the LOWEST NEW YORK WHOLESALE PRICES!

We sell more Waltham Watches than any other establishment in the country, either wholesale or retail; we send great numbers to every section of the country by Mail and Express, carefully packed, and in perfect running order. Our plan is this: You want a Watch, and see our advertisement; now, we want you to first to write us for our Descriptive and Illustrated Price List; we will send it, post-paid, by return mail. It explains all the different kinds, tells the weight and quality of the cases, with prices of each; you then make a selection of the kind you prefer, and send us your order. We then send you the watch by Express, with the bill to collect on delivery. We give instructions to the Express Company to allow you to open the package and examine the watch; if it suits, you can pay and take it; if not, you are under no obligation to receive it; and if it is taken, and afterwards does not prove satisfactory, we will exchange it, or Refund the Money.

As an indication of the Prices, we will quote one watch from our list. The P. S. BARTLETT, Lever Movement, with Extra Jewels, Chronometer Balance, Patent Pinion, Patent Dust Cap, and all the other late improvements, in a Solid Coin Silver Case, for $28 in Greenbacks, or about $20 in Coin.

All other kinds, both gold and silver, in the same proportion. Do not order a watch till you have sent for a Price List, as it contains a great deal of information regarding these watches that will enable you to make an intelligent selection. Don't forget, when you write, to state that you saw this advertisement in the YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT, and you need not put in stamps for return postage. Address in full,

THE LATEST DISCOVERY

— IN —

MEDICATION!

The great difficulty which physicians have been laboring for centuries to overcome, has at length been obviated. A Vegetable Cathartic and alterative more efficient than any mineral preparation of the same class, and as agreeable to the taste as ordinary candy, is now offered to the sick in the form of a Lozenge.

Dr. Erasmus Winslow's Liver and Stomach Lozenge is the most important medicinal novelty that modern chemistry has produced. It contains two botanical extracts, perfectly harmless in themselves, but embodying all the remedial properties of mercury, and destined in this pleasant form to supercede and banish from general use the nauseous pills and potions of which that dangerous excitant is the main ingredient. More than one thousand experiments were made by the inventor of this peerless remedy before it was brought to its present state of perfection. The Lozenge is harmless in its operation, and although the medicinal taste of its curative components has been extinguished by chemical art, their virtues remain as active and potent as ever.

In Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Constipation, sick or nervous Headache, Piles, Dropsy, and the irregularities to which the feebler sex are subject, the Lozenges will be found infinitely more effective than any of the horrible and disgusting compounds usually administered in such cases. As an anti-billious specific and general aperient, they have no equal either among advertised preparations or the prescriptions of the regular pharmacopœia.

☞ It is guaranteed that no one who has once tried Dr. Erasmus Winslow's Liver and Stomach Lozenge, will ever again take a purgative powder, or draught, or pill.

EXTENTION HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

SHARES.....$250 EACH,

Payable in seventeen Monthly Installment.

Lots Represented by Shares 50 by 160 Feet.

Lands Immediately Adjoining the City Limits.

Title Perfect!

Payments to begin July, 1869, and to close November, 1870.

This Homestead addition to the City of Sacramento offers unrivaled inducements to all who desire to secure homes, as well as to those seeking to make investments in real estate. Shareholders who pay up in full may take possession of their lots under restrictions consistant with the interests of all Shareholders and an equitable distribution of the property. These restrictions are briefly: 1. Payment in full within six months from July 1st, 1869. 2. Not more than six lots in any one block shall be assigned; only two of which shall be corner lots, and only one corner and two inside lots on the same side of a block. This feature will secure the immediate settlement and rapid improvement of the lands, and a consequent enhancement of its value. The line of the Sacramento Valley and Western Pacific Railroads run through the plat, and an agreement and bond has been executed by the former Company to run trains on schedules of time equal to the accommodations afforded by street railroads. Thus by reason of being conveniently accessible, these lands are brought within the range (in value) of those more centrally located, and will find early occupancy. In every feature of this scheme the Homestead principle—which has been so prolific of good to citizens of moderate means, promoting the growth of our State and its cities and distributing the ownership of Realty among the many—has been carefully guarded. It may safely challenge comparison or competition.

Articles of Association, containing maps of plat, and showing its relation to the city, will be furnished upon application. Shares may be secured by forwarding the first installment of Ten Dollars to the Secretary, who will also furnish any desired information.

CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS!

Manufactured from the native Herbs and Roots of California.

The Great Blood Purifier!

For Inflammatiory and chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the digestive organs.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood healthy, and all will be well.

"The life of all Flesh is the Blood thereof." Purify the Blood and the health of the whole system will follow. It is a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic.

These Bitters are not a gilded Pill, to delight the eye or please the fancy, but a medical preparation, composed of the best vegetable ingredients known.

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the ONE destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. Newell's Pulmonary Syrup is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of coughs, colds, sore throat, Asthma, Whooping-cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefitted by the surprising curative powers of

This valuable preparation, containing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic, it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever, or otherwise; for while it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes.

It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

The best article ever discovered for cleansing and polishing gold, silver, and plated-ware, and all smooth metalic surfaces, of whatever description, including kitchen utensils of tin, copper, brass, steel, etc.

To Jewelers and workers in gold and silver-plate, the Electro-Silicon is of inestimable value; the time saved, and the vexation prevented by its use, will forever endear its name to all who have had evidence of its merits.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

TRAGEDY.

The sun was setin', like a hen,
  Upon his western nest,
And if he wasn't purty red
  Why, then, may I be blest.
Young Samyule Pod—old Podses son—
  Was lookin' at the sky,
When from the cow-yard back of him
  There came a female cry.
Upon the bosom of the fence
  Reclined Jerushey Dow,
While at her cum, with hideous roar,
  A raparageous cow.
"Oh, laws-a-massy, help me, Sam!"
  Jerushey did exclaim;
And Samyule drew his jack-knife forth,
  And then put back the same.
"Sweet maid," he said courageously,
  "Jest hold the critter's horns,
Or else when I come up she'll be
  A treddin' on my corns!"
She quickly smiled her gratitude,
  When swift the varmint stoops,
And in a moment had Miss Dow
  A hangin' by her hoops.
Then Samyule's latent dander riz,
  And with a fearful frown,
He seized a heavy cistern-pole
  And knocked the old cow down.
The conkerin' hero dropped his pole
  And flew to where Miss Dow
Stood leanin' up agin the fence
  A yellin' at the cow.
Sez he, "Jerushey, promise me
  Before again we part,
That you will take the name of Pod,
  And ease my achin' heart."
Sez she, "Mr. Pod, sir, if you please,
  And if you must know all,
I've promised Alickzander Bangs
  To marry him next Fall."
Poor Samyule paused to hear no more,
  But burst out into groans,
And pulled his hair and scratched himself
  And tore his pantaloons.
The dark duck-pond invited him,
  He plunged beneath the wave,
And with a groan upon his lips
  He sank into that grave.

While a mother was brooding over her poverty, her little son said: "Mamma, I think God hears when we scrape the bottom of the barrel!"

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

For all the Purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterous drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity. They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills readily cure:—For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Langour and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action. For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it. For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required. For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear. For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge. For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy. As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. DR. J. C. AYER & CO.,

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and destroyed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

Hair Dressing,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Pacific Protective Association of California.

Incorporated.....Oct. 1868.

OBJECT.

The object of this Association is to secure a cash payment, within sixty days after the death of a subscriber, to his or her heirs or assigns, of as many dollars as there are individuals of the class to which said deceased subscriber belonged.

MEMBERSHIP.

The subscription fees are Ten Dollars at joining, and One Dollar on the death of each subscriber. The One Dollar from each subscriber is paid to the heirs or assigns of the deceased.

THE FUNDS.

The By-Laws of the Association require that a portion of the money received as subscription fees shall be a sinking fund to meet assessments falling due by the delinquencies of subscribers. The balance of the money received to be used for the expenses incurred by the Association.

MEMBERS.

A subscriber failing to pay his or her assessment of one dollar within Thirty Days from receipt of notice forfeits his or her Certificate, and all claims upon the Association, unless good cause is shown for further delay. A subscriber can forward money in advance, which amount will be credited on future assessments. The subscribers are divided into classes including males and females. Each class is limited to 5000 subscribers. As classes are filled, new ones will be formed. No person is so poor that he cannot pay Ten Dollars at joining and One Dollar occasionally, thus securing $5000 to his or her heirs or assigns.

ADVANTAGES.

The advantages of this Association are, that no money panic can effect it. Its benefits are easily attainable by all, and every subscriber added to the Association enhances the interest and protection of all; the amount paid being so small, and only at long intervals, that any person can secure for his family a competency upon his death.

CLASSES.

In class A, all persons between the ages of 15 and 40 year. In class B, all persons between the ages of 40 and 60 years. Any one that has not stated his or her age correctly, will forfeit all money paid and his or her certificate.

One class cannot be assessed if one of another class dies. Classes have no connection with each other.

HOW TO BECOME A MEMBER.

A person desirous of becoming a subscriber must fill out an application and forward with it Ten Dollars by check, draft, or by Express, in gold or silver coin. Persons can pay agents, when regularly appointed and authorized to receive money. Each subscriber should interest himself in obtaining new members; by so doing all are benefitted.

APPROVED PATTERNS AND FINISH!

I employ no "foreman," for 30 years' experience in the trade—10 years in the Eastern States, 20 years on the Pacific coast, (including 9 years superintendence of the "Pioneer Carriage Shop," Sacramento,) justifies me in assuming that position. Delegating to none the supervision of my work, I am enabled to Guarantee Satisfaction!

My LARGE and SPACIOUS SHOPS enable me to store large quantities of material, and my

SEASONING FACILITIES,

(the only perfect seasoning apparatus on the coast) enable me to defy competition in quality of seasoned work. For verification of above, one has only to examine my facilities in this line, and compare them with those in other shops. I do not pursue the course adopted by many; on the contrary, I season stock before working, and do not put up green stock in wheels, leaving them to season afterwards. I have and keep on hand a large stock of

OAK and HICKORY SPOKES,

of all sizes and the finest material the market affords. Also a large variety of Having given the Oak Hub a fair trial, I have become convinced that they are unfit for first-class work. Parties who may favor me with their patronage may be assured that and having served my time at the two branches of carriage-work, (wood and iron) enables me to guarantee satisfaction in all cases, and to know, as foreman of my own shop, when work is

WELL DONE.

To those who have heretofore dealt at other shops, and conseqently are unacquainted with my work, I would say GIVE ME A CALL and examine my stock and work. Believing that the surest test of the value of my work can be had in the verdict of those who use it, I respectfully refer the public to
